His Excuse

A little boy was absent from school one afternoon. When he came the next morning his teacher said to him, "Why didn't you come to school yesterday afternoon?" He was somewhat startled when he replied: "I couldn't. I had scarlet fever."

MEN'S KNICKERS51st Pioneers
To Hold Reunion

The fifth annual reunion of the 51st Pioneer Infantry Association will be held on Saturday, August 25, at Albany. The members will meet in the armory where the business session will be held. Officers will be elected and after the business session the members will be entertained at dinner.

Many acquaintances are renewed each year some of the boys not having seen each other since their discharge from the service. A large delegation from this city always attends the reunion and a meeting will be held in the armory in the near future of those who expect to go to Albany so that plans for transportation can be arranged for.

Among the officers of the association are the following from this city: Eugene Cornwell, secretary; Charles T. Dixon, treasurer; Henry Munch, sergeant at arms; Edward J. Perry, member executive committee representing old Company M. C. E. Cooper of Walden is president of the association. Francis C. Bosch of White Plains is expected to be elected president for the ensuing year.

Dave Walsh of Albany, former officer of the supply company of the regiment and originator of the idea to have an annual reunion of the regiment each year, has taken hold of things in Albany and as the boys know Dave does things right, they can look for a good time while there.

When a man loves and loses, the chances are she was a gold-digger.

Mr.: Dinner ready, honey?
Mrs.: You'll have to wait, dearest. The steak got a little overdone on the electric stove, and I have it in the electric ice-box now, undoing.

Just think now how long it has been since you heard anyone singing "Yes, We Have No Bananas."

Absence doesn't make the heart grow any fonder than presents.

Barbara Frietchie To Date.
Most of the family were at the parlor window watching the parade go by. Suddenly the mother turned to her daughter—"Where's your auntie?"

"Upstairs," came the reply, "waving her hair."
"Mercy!" exclaimed the mother. "Can't we afford a flag?"

"I always encourage my husband to recline in an easy chair and put his feet on top of the radiator."

"Why so?"
"When he goes to bed there is usually about $4.00 in small change in the chair."

This is a presidential year and from the signs we believe when it is over the people are going to know there has been an election. In spite of all efforts to keep it secret.

A New Yorker, on a rainy day, hurrying up from the subway, slipped on a brush left by a street-cleaner and fell right into a puddle. As he got up, with fire in his eye, he saw in front of him a tooth paste advertisement—"Comes out of the tube and lays flat on the brush."

One operation that tends to eliminate criminal traits is performed with a paddle.

If you want to pet a girl it's best to lead to it gradually. Like this for example: "Let's neck."

Fifty cents' worth of material, plus $2 worth of style, plus $35 worth of reputation and you have a $37.50 hat.

A song for flappers: "We Are Tinting To-night."

Hay Fever

Home Treatment

If you want a really effective treatment for Hay or Rose Fever go right to McBride's Drug Stores and ask for a bottle of Opex.

Spray the nostrils two or three times a day—often if necessary.

You'll be surprised and delighted—not only will Opex soothe and heal the raw inflamed membrane, but it will promptly stop the humiliating discharge. If it fails, get your money back.

The price is but $1.00 and McBride's Drug Stores will gladly tell you all about it.

Motor cars of high price, such as the Rolls Royce, prize Bijur centralized chassis lubrication as an invaluable feature.

Nash, at moderate price, has it as standard equipment on all "400" Advanced Six Models.

Bijur operation is simplicity itself—and it is invariably efficient regardless of changes in temperature.

There's a lever conveniently placed for your left toe at the floor board.

Simply depress it once and 21 points are automatically oiled, including all spring shackles.

Bother and expense of service station lubrication are eliminated.

Wear at vital chassis points is avoided.

Annoying squeaks and groans are stopped before they start.

The world has a new and finer motor car, with features of excellence hitherto found only on very costly cars. Bijur Centralized Chassis Lubrication is one of them.

ELEANOR GUNN ON FASHIONS

THE CURVE OF THE HIP IS EMPHASIZED, YET PARTIAL CONCEALED BY THE ULTRA-SMART SHORT JACKET FOR EVENING—SOME COLOR PREFERENCES IN CLADDING JEWEL TONES

New York—According to the curves of the hip has become the rule, rather than the exception, since straight lines became a lost cause. The great majority of dresses, especially those for the younger set, and more especially those for evening, have draped hip-lines so draped that they reveal the natural contour of the figure. With the addition of straight and rather abbreviated jackets, somewhat concealing this line the fashion persists.

The jackets varied in length are created with and without sleeves. It seems expedient to have them with sleeves, for by making it possible to wear the same dress with and without jacket, which is equivalent to saying with and without sleeves, doubles the life, or at least the purpose, of the gown.

Coupled with the practicable list of colors that are being selected it would seem that for evening at least fashion has found a way to be economical, to the extent of saving our gowns frequent trips to the cleaners. Browns, especially cocoa and copper; blues, notably sapphire, flag and king's; and grays, not all of which are silver, are among the shades that crowd green from the dance floor. Black remains, and certain neutral shades appear silhouetted against it.

The blending of colors, especially bright tones, frequently referred to as narrow colorings, must be cited, as well as yellow and, of course, purple and certain of the orchid tones, and red, running the gamut from poppy and currant shades to much more sober range. While it is blue-greens that run like a theme throughout the style world, emerald is gaining impetus along with other jewel tones, notably topaz.

Navy Georgette Likely to Be in Autumn Fashion

In a fashion world seemingly given over to prints of every size, kind and condition of colorfulness, there is always a conservative soul who desires a non-color-ridden summer-time mode in personal favor of navy blue georgette. This ever attractive and dependable fabric has seemingly been lost to sight in the medley of prints.

But in showings of midsummer fashions by some of the leading metropolitan dressmakers navy georgette is not only endorsed for this period, but will extend well into the fall season.

Many of the new designs fashioned in dark-blue georgette are trimmed with extra lace and bandings of satin, plaiding and daret sections offering fullness.

Pale yellow taffeta makes a charming new evening wrap—a coat with cape collar and daring sleeves. Taffeta ruffles edge both.

Successes Triumph

Apple pie was never invented. It is a natural and inevitable product of evolution. It is a survival of the fittest. In the dim dark ages before the dawn of civilization mankind groped among the berry bushes and the weeds for sustenance, and was duly thankful for life. Fire came, and cooking. Ancient civilizations developed the art. At last came the day when apple pie was baked. Since then the art has continued, but has not advanced.—Exchange.

A Gas Storage Water Heater Speeds the Work

In the good old summer time, the fewer hours spent in the kitchen, the better. Everything which speeds the work is a welcome aid to the housekeeper. Hot water must be on tap to whisk dishes out of sight, sparkling clean, to hasten the doing of the weekly laundry and the innumerable "small pieces" which accumulate so quickly in hot weather. And then there should be a continual supply of hot water for the daily baths.

That's where an automatic gas storage water heater eases the routine of housekeeping in summer. Stored up in an insulated tank, the hot water is ready to flow forth at the turn of the faucet, for every need, speeding the work along. For dish-washing, for laundry work, for the daily bath—hot water, for which there is no waiting, is economical and convenient.

Automatic Storage Water Heating Rate

New gas rates effective July 1, 1923, available to residential customers having automatic storage water heaters installed in their homes, provide a charge of 95c per thousand cubic feet for all gas used in excess of 3,200 cubic feet per month. This rate allows the customer to purchase all gas in excess of a normal range usage at an extremely low rate.

Snake's Heart Action

In lower animals, such as the snake and the frog, the spinal cord is of more importance than the spinal cord in the higher orders of animal life. In the former it influences the body more than the brain does. It is because of this fact that the heart of the snake will continue to beat for some time after the head is severed from the body.

Choice of Apparel Now

Permissible on Beaches

It seems hard to believe that we entered the summer without any discussion of beach decorum, one-piece bathing suits and sand censors—without, indeed, even a single plaintive protest from the die-hard Grundys whose sensibilities have been so heartlessly outraged each summer by the very modern maidens of the sea. It is such a short time, says a writer in the Louisville Courier-Journal, since arguments raged pro and con over the length of bathing suits, since wise mayors were consulting every available authority in an effort to decide just what were the boundaries of circumspection.

Unhappily, these momentous debates are over and no one seems to care what sort of restraint is dispensed by the merry nymphs of the sands. The athletic swimming suit, mannish to every detail, has been accepted as an inevitable by-product of modern fashion, trends—the abbreviated bathing dress no longer draws the deep criticism of fastidious with a Victorian background. Moles and mumps are always changing and no one knows better than the people swimmer himself that it is to swim up stream.

Possibly it is not precisely accurate to term the beach a new development. Ever since the laquid ladies of the tide disrupted the non-historic Meisner promenade patterns this kind of apparel has had a place in the mode. But despite their scorn at certain resorts on both sides of the Atlantic, they had not attained any widespread popularity.

This season, their appeal seems to have caught popular fancy. In France they have become a fad, and even on these more staid shores they are rapidly extending their sway among smart women. They are, of course, over the bathing suit and the fact that they appear a little better is only in their favor under fashion's modern version of the free dom of the seas.

To sum up the summer beach mode in a few words, its essence is that it must be stylish. Whether the attention-commanding effect is achieved through unusual costumes, vivid colors or elegant refections from Victorianism is beside the point.

RED TAPE TIES
UP WAR CLAIMSouthern Family About to Receive Redress After 65 Years of Effort.

Washington—A bill of government red tape that has slowly but steadily bound itself for 65 years about a Civil war claim growing out of the days before Vicksburg with Grant, is now up to President Coolidge for final approval as a result of a fast effort in the last minute of the recent congress to do justice to a proud and one-time wealthy but at present impoverished Southern family.

The President has said he would give the measure his approval when it reaches him in the form of legislation left for executive scrutiny.

On the books of the government the claim stands as "the estate of Haller Nutt vs. the United States." Starting as an action for $200,722.10, it has been compromised by congress for $85,644. Behind it all is a tale of pretty romance that has been carried through ten Presidents, the Court of Claims, the Supreme court of the United States, to say nothing of having been a regular and consistent visitor at the portals of congress for 44 years.

His Last Effort.

In every instance everybody has given approval, but red tape has interfered with final settlement. Not until the last session of congress has anything been done, however, to bring succor to a son and three daughters, all past eighty years of age, and who, as the records show, have been living on cornbread and molasses while they pressed their action through all the phases and years mentioned.

As Sergt. Prentice Nutt, the elderly brother, put it to the last congress: "This will be my last effort. All my life for 65 years, from a young man to old age, has been wasted in my duty to myself and my sisters, but I still believe justice will be done."

Haller Nutt was a wealthy and provident father and plantation owner not far from Vicksburg. The exigencies of war brought General Grant's army upon the Nutt plantation to its complete ruin and destruction. A cotton gin, the old homestead, and 700 bales of cotton were destroyed.

Nutt, ever a loyal Northerner, although living in the South, made the best of it, but after the war took it up with Grant. The latter approved an original claim of $20,000 for the cotton gin and $111,323 for the cotton bales. President Andrew Johnson and the reconstruction war board also gave approval, but red tape started to wind, and numerous to uncialities developed that made payment impossible.

In the meantime old Haller Nutt died and his son and the latter's sisters were left with nothing. The four members of the family devoted themselves to the pressing of the claims, the sisters taking rooms in a small home not far from the plantation and the brother moving to Washington to be on the firing line. He has lived in the capital ever since, seeing his sisters but four times in all the years of absence, but writing them encouraging or false letters of hope each week.

Action was brought in the Court of Claims. General Grant testified in support of the Nutts and the court held the claim justified, but that the Civil war insurrection barred the legality of actions for damages occurring in the revolting states.

Gets Another Hearing.

For four years Nutt, who studied law at nights while in Washington and became a member of the capital bar, carried this contention through the Supreme court.

Yet Nutt, growing older and older, could find no way of forcing payment. He at last tackled congress and for 45 years endeavored to get a hearing. The doors of the war claims committee were closed to him year by year until the Sixty-seventh congress. Then his claim was passed by the senate, but died in the house.

Nothing more was done until this year when the aged and infirm lawyer-son appeared and was allowed another hearing. The senate was impressed and approved his claim for $131,323. The house, however, cut it in half, and it is this sum President Coolidge has promised he will give approval to.

"We are not getting a penny of interest," said Mr. Nutt, "but we are getting something. Our age is such that this will be sufficient. Had it been but $1 we would have considered our cause justified. Yet 60 years is a long time to wait for redress."

Fort Worth, Texas.—The only woman pilot entered in the National Air Tour has christened her small monoplane Chigger, in memory of that exceedingly industrious insect. New Paper by County Girl Scouts

(By F. G. Cloghlin)

The Ulster County Girl Scouts at Camp Wendy have started a camp paper, called "The Peter Pan-Bulletin," with the following staff of editors: Betty Farnald, editor-in-chief; Helen Fisher, news editor; Rosalie Platt, humor editor; Helen Bogart, athletic editor; and Ruth Fisher, nature editor.

While the young ladies have kept their efforts to a double-column mimeographed sheet, their initial appearance of a bi-monthly news bulletin is interesting.

To quote from their premier print, the editors have this to say about Camp Wendy, Walkkill, N. Y.: "In this our first encampment we have 72 girls enrolled with an able staff of 14 Councilors to direct them. There are girls here from Saugerties, New Paltz, Kingston, Poughkeepsie, White Plains, N. Y., and Leonia, Teaneck and Bogota, N. J., Hollis, L. I., and one girl from as far away as Cleveland, Ohio."

On the staff of councilors is Ethel Betty Casey, dietitian, Battle Creek graduate; Miss Ruth Craddock, New Haven, Conn., swimming instructor, student of Arnold College of Physical Education, who also has charge of general athletics; Miss Mary T. Barvain, White Plains, nature classes, and Miss Lucille Kennedy of Beacon, N. Y., assisting Miss Craddock. The girls have already reported having a Water Pageant, a "Backwards Day," a baby party and a tableau-play.

Chance to See
Artist at Work

An interesting announcement has been made for the public which visits Woodstock and would like to see how an oil painting of a landscape is made, that Michel Jacobs, art teacher, author, lecturer of New York, will paint a picture for his audience in his lecture on "The Art of Color" to be given at Pandora's Box on Tuesday evening, August 7, at 8:15 o'clock. Mr. Jacobs has been giving a series of these lectures the past week or two; artists and students at the colony have found them very interesting; the public is invited to attend the special lecture, scheduled for Tuesday night, for which tickets are procurable at the door.

Plans for Annual Maverick Festival

Woodstock, Aug. 3.—George

Barrow, Maverick musician, with his wife is touring in Canada for two weeks and expects to return to his summer home about August 5.

Announcement has been made that the big annual Maverick festival will take place on Friday, August 31. Plans are in preparation at the Maverick colony for a jubilee event. It is probable that the evening's entertainment, to be held in the large open-air theatre, will be an Arabian Nights entertainment, bringing to the hillside audience many of the prominent actors, musicians and artists at the Woodstock colony. Farrell Pelly, Alexis Kosloff and others are assisting with the preparations for this coming event.

Nellie Ozzanne, artist, has had a number of her small oil color sketches sold recently at the Old Woodstock Annex Shop. Mrs. Ozzanne paints small landscapes in bright colors, excellent pieces for gifts, for owners who appreciate Woodstock art works in their homes.

John Rose Gilda, writer, is stopping at the Maverick as a guest of Mr. Karl. Mr. Gilda comes from New York city.

The Woodstock Fish and Game Club received from the State Conservation Department last week 36 pheasants which they loosed about the township for stocking purposes. This club now has about 50 members. George Reynolds is secretary. Harold Shultis, contractor, is just completing an attractive stone house near Bearsville for Walter Peters. This house was built of native stone, the architecture adapted from an Arizona house.

Ernest Brace and wife are spending two weeks in New York city. The former Kingston trolley car purchased by Ken Ormsby and Paul Flene has received a coat of yellow paint and is now lettered for the new business, "Tinker Street Lunch Wagon."

Mrs. Howard Babcock of New York city has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer Vought in Shady the past week.

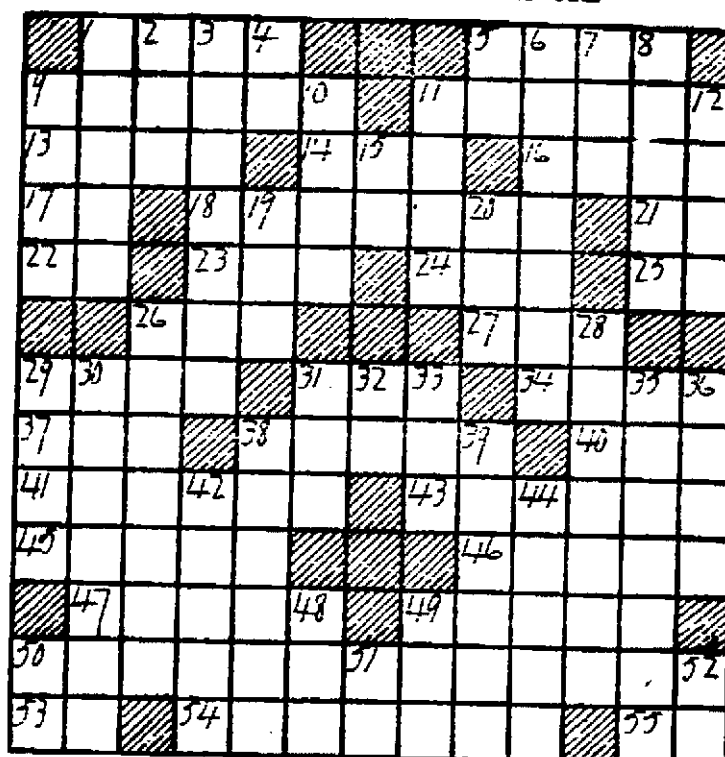

Minority Victors

Twice in the history of the country a Presidential candidate has received a majority of the popular votes and been defeated by the electoral vote. The most famous case was the disputed election of 1876 when Samuel J. Tilden received 4,384,883 votes and Hayes 4,033,850, but Hayes was declared elected. In 1888 Cleveland had 5,540,329 popular votes and Harrison 5,480,583, but Harrison was elected by 233 electoral votes to 168.

LOW FLYING PLANE
ALMOST HIT SPIRE

The police authorities of Beaufort are seeking to identify an aircraft that circled over the city twice Thursday morning at an altitude of about 75 feet, narrowly missing a couple of church spires and causing a considerable commotion in the streets below.

According to those who obtained a close view of the plane it had no license number or markings of any description and the pilot was the only person in the machine. Telephone calls to West Point and nearby aviation fields have met with no success as no plane of any description from any of the fields has been in this vicinity Thursday.

Odd Light Production

Many minute sea shrimps and marine worms emit brilliant flashes of light because of their power of making at their pleasure a fatty substance which can be oxidized into a glowing phosphorescence. If one watches the breakers splash away from the prow of a river boat he will see the points and dashes of luminescence caused by minute jellyfish and three-headed animalcules, called ceratium.

Lawyer Vs. Witness

A lawyer recently engaged in trying a case asked one of the witnesses his name. The witness gave it, but the lawyer did not catch it. He repeated the question, and the man on the stand promptly repeated the answer.
 Still failing to get any clear idea of the name, the lawyer demanded, rather impatiently, that the witness spell his name. He did so, saying, "O-double t-dou-ble you e-double-dou-ble you-double o-double d."

The spelling confounded the attorney; and, amid the laughter in the courtroom, he quietly conducted the witness to one side, and learned that his name was "O'Drill Woodard."

Old White House Gates

The office of public buildings and grounds says that the White House gates on Pennsylvania avenue at Jackson place between the White House grounds and the State War and Navy building were put there during Grant's administration between 1870 and 1874.
 This land was originally the White House grounds. The gates were placed there to shut off that road as a public thoroughfare at night. These gates were removed because they had served their purpose and were to some extent an obstruction to traffic.

FAMOUS OLD HOTEL MAY

MAKE WAY FOR GARAGE

The famous old Edgerton hotel, at Delhi, Delaware county, which for the past two years has been unoccupied and dismantled and which was taken over by the Ulster County Savings institution a few months since, by reason of the foreclosure of a land mortgage, has been sold by the bank to Mable and Davis, proprietors of the Russell Archibald garage, Delhi.

The new owners have not announced their plans as to the use they are to make of their newly acquired property but it is expected that the building will be wrecked and the lot, which is a spacious one located in the heart of Delhi village, will be devoted to the automobile industry in some form.

So passes the old Edgerton tavern, a landmark for nearly 50 years and for three-quarters of a century one of the most widely known village hotels in the state. The structure now from an exterior view stands as firm on its foundation and as plump as when erected—a tribute to the skill and honest workmanship of the carpenters and stone masons of the days of our great-grandfathers.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

(By The Associated Press.)

New York—Miss Grace Lyon is head of a company which proposes to take winter vacationists to Bermuda by airplane in six hours. It takes two days by boat.

Berwick, Pa.—A bobbed-haired bank bandit, caught in the act, has been set free. A doe invaded the Berwick National in the height of working hours and made sundry burps at the money cages till cornered.

New York—Tex Guinan says she is pretty near though with cabareters anyhow, and the reason is not Mrs. Willebrandt. She is going into talking pictures.

Galveston—Beauty in distress is to be aided. Senorita Angeda Adorno, the Miss Spain of a recent beauty pageant here, is held at New Orleans for violating the immigration laws by overstaying. The pageant officials are willing to provide transportation home.

New York—Miss Florence Hayes, 20, orphan niece of the Cardinal Archbishop of New York, has taken the veil. She is now Michella Marie of the Sisters of St. Francis.

Burlington, Vt.—John Rockefeller-Prentice, grandson of John D. Rockefeller, besides working his way through Yale, has found the time to prepare to fight for Uncle Sam if need be. He has qualified at Fort Ethan Allen for a commission as Reserve second Lieutenant of Field Artillery.

New York—Claude R. Link earns $10 a week as a process server and does not want a million. He so expressed himself when he was informed that he and his ill mother had inherited $2,000,000 or so from the estate of her father, L. A. Birger, who died in Hutchinson, Kan., but he amended that he would accept for his mother's sake.

Asbury Park, N. J.—Tom Burley, director of Municipal Radio Station WCAP, thinks Tex Rickard is a good sport. Tom sent Tex $7 as a fee for having seen the Turner-Heener by radio. Tex returned it with thanks.

New York—Girls, soon you can have those runs in silk hose fixed while you wait, like shoes. A company is to operate such stations for aid of the distressed with a new invention of two brothers, who refused $1,000,000 for it.

Amsterdam—Chance for Hollywood to sign up a handsome male of accomplishment. Bruno Scopes, tall Magyar, who was second in the Olympic javelin throw, wants a job in American movies. He is also an artist, a ski jumper, a dancer and a linguist.

New York—Clever, these Chinese. The Y. M. C. A. has received a letter from Shanghai telling of an ingenious native clerk in a bank the organization runs for soldiers and sailors. A sailor came in late to leave $200 overnight. The Chinese locked the money in a safe and gave the key to the sailor. The Y is not recommending this method of banking, though it was very successful in its trial.

Rome—Brave little dog, that Tina, mascot of Nobilitas. Was she afraid of polar bears in the Arctic? No, sir. As Giuseppe Blasi, radio operator of the Italia, puts it, the bears ran away whenever Tina barked at them.

Wild Animal Increase

A great many kinds of wild animals are increasing. Antelope, black and brown bears, deer, elk, mountain goats and beavers all show a steady increase in numbers. The grizzly bear, however, faces extinction. There are only 880 grizzlies in all the national forests outside of Alaska. California, where they were once found in great numbers, now has none.

Fake Philosophers

"Most philosophers I have known," said El Ho, the sage of Chinatown, "are men who sought to make words take the place of personal toll."—Washington Star.

Femininity Marks
New Sports Duds*Softer, More Voluminous Silhouette, Subtle Coloring, Intricate Detail.

The new mode which is still showing the influence of femininity, is exhibited in the realm of sports clothes. Even coats entirely suited to activities in the sports world are showing traces here and there of a feminine feeling. Various points that mark this trend are seen, for instance, in the tendency toward a normal waistline, the softer, more voluminous silhouette, the subtle coloring and intricate detail.

The sports coat is, of course, seen in all fabrics and in all colors and in a variety of cuts. There is seen among these new models the sports coat for beach and mountains of white flannel with its loose silhouette and slight tendency towards the voluminous. Then there is the collarless coat of bright velveteen—or angora with chevron stitched edges, which, in its dash and colorful appeal, is proving highly popular.

Tucks, too, are prominent and in the soft woollens the lovely model of Louise Boulanger is beautifully copied. This shows a marked femininity of treatment in the tucked yoke and pockets and its swaying lines.

Scarf is Prominent and Smart in Coat of Roman Stripes.

Belts are exceedingly smart and outline a nearly normal waistline. The trench coat, so smart for rain, motor-ing or travel, is smartly seen in off white shades in cotton gabardine. Scotch plaids, too, are cut in dashing lines suitable for traveling and motor-ing and are at their best in models which give attention to details—especially belts.

Frances Hamilton, featured "movie" actress in the picture "No Place to Go," shows the trend towards femininity in a coat of extreme chic and simplicity. The scarf, so exceedingly smart in all coats, is a feature of distinction in this coat of Roman stripes which is worn over a dress of gray flat crepe.

Beige With Yellow Cast; Flared Fullness Leads

The newer beige tones, and a hint of yellow, tend toward a yellow cast. Vloonet apparently feels that one need not choose between beige and gray, for she frankly sponsors both, dove gray being one of the high lights of this very important collection.

Flared fullness is the basis of the afternoon and evening silhouette, and to a modified degree fullness follows through the entire gamut of fashion. It is variously distributed, but while heretofore front fullness has been the favorite arrangement, more and more women are being converted to the idea of back draperies and back fullness. This is possibly the result of the success of the flowing and dipping buckline, a line that for evening has become the rule rather than the exception.

The great majority of smart evening dresses are of the period, or modified period, type. Flounces and ruffles are lavishly employed, which might indicate that sheer fabrics are the only possible choice. Such is not the case, however; there is a decided feeling for silks of the stiffer variety, although one has not yet reached the stage when one may pride oneself on wearing silks that "stand alone," as was the proud boast of another generation.

Longer Dresses Bring Shorter Evening Wraps

Evening dresses are getting longer and evening wraps are growing shorter, says a Paris fashion correspondent. To take care of billowing ruffled skirts and trailing draperies the newest wraps have turned into jackets which occasionally reach only a few inches below the hips. Some have no fastening and are meant to be held in place or left open in the manner of a sports coat.

Some of the latest models have patch pockets.

Giant Mushroom

A lavender mushroom is eaten in England under the name of "Blewitt." It grows as large as six inches across the top, says Nature Magazine, with a stem occasionally as thick as a man's wrist.

Events Around The Empire State

(By The Associated Press.)

Westport—Residents of this section are complaining of the ravages of deer among farm crops and garden produce. The deer are protected by law.

Plattsburg—A two-headed Angora kitten was born a few days ago at the home of Francis B. Munkittrick here. Both heads are perfect but when the kitten cries, although both mouths open, sound issues from only one.

Malone—Major Carl Baldwin of Washington sent his Airedale dog to a relative here, Earl Deans, asking him to care for the dog until he arrived for a visit. The dog escaped from the crate in which he was shipped and Deans was unable to capture him. When Major Baldwin arrived he left a coat on the porch and the next morning the animal was found standing guard over it.

North Rush—Eddie H. Clapp of this place has a fountain pen used by President Coolidge in signing a bill providing for forestry research with a view to conserving the land and timber resources of the country. Mr. Clapp was a guest of honor at a luncheon in Washington, D. C., in recognition of his work in forestry research and the pen was presented to him at the president's suggestion by Secretary of Agriculture Jardine.

Beekmantown—Lightning struck the home of Martin D. Donivan here a few days ago and damaged every room in the house, hurling clappboards a distance of 20 feet, but although several members of the family were in the building, all escaped injury.

North Ticonderoga—Essex county has gone in for raising strawberries on an extensive scale. In one day recently, 12 bushels and 11 quarts were picked on the farm of Burt Huestis, near here. Mrs. Huestis set the day's record among the pickers, her total being 85 quarts.
